

Lifestyle Guide Book for Foreign Residents

KORANSHO GUIDE

FUKUSHIMA

Planning & Publication:

Fukushima City Settlement and Region Exchange Division

「KORANSHO GUIDE FUKUSHIMA」

‘Koransho’ means ‘welcome’ or ‘please come’ in the Fukushima dialect.

This guide was created in order to provide foreign residents of Fukushima City with the information required in their everyday lives.

We hope that this guide is useful in ensuring that everyone living in Fukushima can have peace of mind and a comfortable lifestyle.

Reporting an Emergency	1	7-8 Transport	13
If you are sick or injured at night or on a holiday	1	8	Working
Disasters	2-3	9	If You Are Sick or Injured
1 Consultation Service Counters	4		9-1 Going to a Hospital
2 Administrative Counters	5		9-2 Medical Examinations
3 Residency	5	10	Marriage
4 When you first move to Fukushima City			10-1 Between a Foreign National and a Japanese National
4-1 Residence Registration	6		10-2 Between Foreign Nationals
4-2 Medical Insurance	7	11	Children
4-3 Nursing Insurance	7		11-1 If You Are Pregnant
4-4 Pension	8		11-2 When the Child is Born
5 Tax	9		11-3 Kindergartens & Preschools
6 Certifying Documents	9		11-4 Elementary & Junior High Schools
7 Everyday Life		12	Learning & Exchange
7-1 Searching for a house	10		12-1 Cultural Facilities
7-2 Public Housing	10		12-2 Libraries
7-3 Neighborhood Associations & Resident's Associations	10		12-3 Japanese Classes
7-4 Utilities	11		12-4 International Associations
7-5 Post	11	13	When Leaving Japan
7-6 Rubbish	12	MAP
7-7 Banking	12

Notation of available languages. ... This mark shows services that are available in languages other than Japanese.

Eng

English

繁

Chinese (Cantonese)

Tag

Tagalog

Fra

French

नेपाली

Nepalese

中

Chinese (spoken)

Vie

Vietnamese

Esp

Spanish

Deu

German

မြန်မာ

Burmese

简

Chinese (Mandarin)

한

Korean

Ind

Indonesian

Por

Portuguese

ไทย

Thai