

The buildings were constructed around a public square.

A cluster of graves in which infants were buried can be seen nearby.

The building with the posts 90cm in diameter was discovered in the northwest of the public square.

It was customary to construct buildings using huge posts in the northwest of the public square.

Floor plan of No.1 Hottatebashira Building

Cross section of the posthole (No. 3 Pit) with the black part showing the trace of a post 90cm in diameter